L. S. U.

• New initiates are Richard D'Aquin, Franklin Donaldson, Bill Cooper, Ralph St. Ament, Gene Gautreaux, Bill Swift and John Scholfield. These men were initiated at the Tulane Chapter inasmuch as all our equipment was destroyed in our fire. After the initiation the old actives entertained the new actives at Charlie's Steak House.

The Founders Day banquet was a huge success. After an excellent dinner, W.M. Walter Trogel introduced the alumni for a few words. Everyone pledged to do what he could do about building a new house. Mr. Brad Willingham made the main address. Bobby Dinnat, Keith Rawlings and Frank Donaldson presented a play based on the founding of the Fraternity. Keith Rawlings sang "The Sweetheart of ATO" and our housemother, Mrs. Gibbs, was presented with a bouquet of roses.

Big plans are being made for the new house. We planned to break ground in April and to be ready to move in in September.

Brother Bill Swift is now studying at the University of Mexico.

New officers are Walter Trogel, W.M.; J. J. Barnes, W.C.; John McCormick, W.K. E.; Devane Manning, W.Sc.; A. J. Munsen, W.U., and Skyler Cummings, W.S.

Maine

• Maine Beta Upsilon ushered in the University of Maine Snow Carnival Weekend with its mid-winter house party held Feb. 18-20. The house was decorated with comic caricatures, the theme of the gala weekend. Dave Cates was chairman of the intramural ball for the Snow Carnival Weekend.

Richard Sprague has been nominated for the Thomas Arkle Clark Award.

The winner of the Dartmouth Annual Ski Jump was Bill Cummings, who jumped a record-breaking 145 feet. Also in the winter ski endeavors, John Chapman collected the combined downhill slalom Golden Ski Award sponsored by the Bangor Daily Commercial, while Jay Winter was winner of the University's intramural downhill slalom event.

Samuel F. Morse, Dartmouth '37, is an instructor in English at the University.

Ralph Piscopo is again Golden Glove champion of the State of Maine, and John Barber took lightweight honors in the State of Maine title bouts. Ralph conducted the University intramural boxing contest. Emerging victorious were John Barber & Bill Linton who captured the 175-lb. class.

The Boston University-University of Maine track meet saw Dick Knowlton come take first in the mile event. Lynne Holden reported for spring training in baseball.

Alumni present at the Founders Day banquet included Brothers Charles Gilbert, C. P. Crowell, Albert "Dad" Whipple, Ralph Whittier, Joseph Trefethen, James W. Cunningham, Alden Lancaster, Sam Szak, Sam Morse and Elmer Tobey.

"Red" Hodgkins and "Red" Norton.

Marietta

• On March 15, 21 men were initiated: Dan Alexa, Don Beebe, Bill Brink, Jim Chenard, Cliff Crook, Don Crooke, Bill Felton, Dick Greacen, Al Knaus, Frank Lenehan, Gene Lewis, Joe Lewis, Paul Lichtenburg, Bill Lough, Bob Lough, John Muscari, Mel Rood, Dave Smart, Bob Stephens, Andy Wighton and John Yohannon.

The initiation was followed by a Founders Day banquet at the LaFayette Hotel in downtown Marietta. Several alumni were present and speeches were given, songs sung, and a good time had by all. It was the largest attendance at Founders Day banquet in the history of Beta Rho.

Bob Dunbar.

Maryland

• We started the semester with the initiation of Hal Broderick, Bud Forziatti, Dick Hays, Hank Beiter, Don Shanklin, Buddy Stutts, Jack Remsburg, Buddy Tague, Claude Robinson, Bob Stickell and Dick Stone. Dr. Claude W. Mitchell of Nebraska Gamma Theta presented the badge to the new initiates in his usual impressive fashion. A buffet dinner at the chapter house followed as we welcomed our new brothers. Dr. C. E. White awarded the Judge John H. Sheppard award for scholarship (to the sophomore with the highest average) to Brother Canby.

On Sunday, Mar. 26, parents and faculty were invited to an open house held by the chapter. It was a different kind of party and most enjoyable. At our Tau Tramp party, John Lescure won for the best beard while the best dressed lady was Suzi Miller, Tri-Delt.

Province Chief Fred Carl presented the Province XIX basketball trophy to the chapter on Monday night, April 4. Led by "Jumping Jack" Remsburg and Jeff Kieth we finished in league play with a 6-0 record and a total of 15 wins in 16 games for the season.

Bob Stockdale now holds the big stick as he steps into the goalie slot in the Varsity lacrosse team. Brother Hank Miles also does his share of stopping them as Varsity baseball catcher.

NEW M. I. T. INITIATES
